MA IN ENGLISH
MA in ENGLISH

The General MA in English allows students to develop expertise in a variety of areas: Anglophone Literatures, Critical Theory, Screen Studies, Rhetoric and Professional Writing, Linguistics, and Applied Linguistics/TESOL (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages). In consultation with their advisory committees, students devise an individualized curriculum that reflects their own intellectual interests and prepares them to enter a PhD program or to teach at the college level.

The General MA in English consists of 30 credit hours, which includes six hours of thesis. In addition to these hours, students must demonstrate reading knowledge of a language other than English, pass the MA Qualifying Examination (literature students do not take an exam), and successfully defend a thesis. A description of the degree requirements and regulations appears on the following pages.

Forms to File in 308 Morrill for the MA in English:

- Departmental Advisory Committee Form: by the end of the first year of graduate study
- Plan of Study: end of the second semester of full-time enrollment – excluding summer sessions (filed online at the Graduate College website)
- Notice of Intent to take Qualifying Exams (when applicable): by the end of the second week of classes in the semester in which exams will be taken
- Thesis Prospectus: no later than the beginning of the first semester of the thesis hours
- Notice of Intent to defend a Thesis: by the end of the second week of the semester in which the defense will take place
- Results of Final Defense Form: immediately following defense

Summary Checklist

By the end of the second full semester of enrollment, you must have:

- taken the appropriate ENGL 5013: Introduction to Graduate Studies or, for Screen Studies students, ENGL 5363: Critical Approaches to Screen Studies: Theory and History
- chosen an advisor in your major area of study
- chosen your advisory committee
- met with your committee and discussed your plan of study
- filed your plan of study (online at the Graduate College website)
Before taking the MA Qualifying Examination, you must have:

- fulfilled the language requirement
- maintained a GPA of 3.0 or above on all graduate course work
- filed an approved plan of study with the Graduate College
- submitted a Notice of Intent to Take Qualifying Examination form to the English Graduate Office by the end of the second week of classes

Before you are eligible to graduate, you must have:

- filed a Graduation Clearance form (and a revised plan of study, if applicable)
- filed a Diploma Application (if your graduation is delayed you must fill out a Diploma Application Extension Form on the Registrar's website http://registrar.okstate.edu/Forms)

In addition you must have completed the following to graduate:

- fulfilled the language requirement
- passed your oral defense (Final Examination) and turned in the signed Results of Final Defense form to the English Graduate Office and Graduate College
- submitted the final copy of the thesis in accordance with the format guidelines at http://gradcollege.okstate.edu/student/thesis

Application and Admission

Admission to the MA program in English requires a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree from an accredited institution of higher learning. Other qualifications and application materials appear below. Applicants should be mindful that meeting the minimum standards for admission does not guarantee admission.

All students will apply on the Graduate College Website: https://app.it.okstate.edu/gradcollege/ . All of the above documents and scores will be uploaded to the electronic application.

Admission Qualifications and Application Materials

- GPA
  Applicants should have maintained an undergraduate grade-point average of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale, particularly in English courses.

- Undergraduate Major
  Applicants must have an undergraduate degree appropriate to the specialization they will follow. For the specialization in Literature, they must have a minimum of 24 hours in English (excluding first-year composition).

- Recommendations
  Applicants must submit two letters of recommendation

- Statement of Purpose
  Applicants must submit a written statement of approximately 250 words that identifies a proposed area of study, reasons for undertaking graduate study in this area, relevant work experience, and future career plans.

- Writing Sample
  Applicants must submit a writing sample: a 7- to 15-page paper written for an upper-level course in an appropriate area of study.

The GRE Exam is not required but students who have GRE scores are encouraged to submit them.
English Language Proficiency (non-native speakers)

Applicants who are not native speakers of English must submit current scores from one of the following:

- TOEFL iBT - minimum score of 100
- TOEFL - paper based with minimum of 600
- IELTS - minimum score of 7.0

Please see the English Department website for current score requirements.

Students are admitted in particular areas of specialization. If a student wishes to move from one area of specialization to another within the general MA (such as from Literature to Screen Studies) or to move from one MA degree program into another MA degree program (such as the General MA in English to the MA with Option in Professional Writing), the student must submit an application to the English Graduate office and receive approval for that change from the Admissions Committee. The application must include a new statement of purpose and a new writing sample, which will be considered along with the rest of the student's graduate file. Since this application will be an internal English Department matter, students will not pay an application fee. If the Admissions Committee does not grant the request, the student will have the option of continuing in the area of specialization into which he or she was admitted.

Graduate College Rules and Regulations

There are many rules and regulations affecting graduate enrollment, tenure, examinations, theses, and dissertations that are made by the Graduate Faculty of Oklahoma State University rather than the English Department. Among the rules students should familiarize themselves with are those governing academic dishonesty or misconduct, especially those dealing with plagiarism. It is the student's responsibility to become informed about all English Department, Graduate College, and University regulations.

The Oklahoma State University Catalog should be read closely by all those who are considering, or participating in, graduate studies in English at Oklahoma State University. Copies are available online at http://www.okstate.edu/registrar.

Advisor and Advisory Committee

All graduate students select an individual advisor and an advisory committee to guide them in completing their degrees.

Advisor: Students are encouraged to choose an advisor by the end of their first semester of course work, but if this is not possible, students should select an advisor by the end of their first year of graduate study. An advisor of an MA student may be any member of the graduate faculty of the English Department; in most cases, the advisor has expertise in the subject matter area in which the student plans to specialize.

Advisory Committee: The advisory committee will normally consist of the student's major advisor as committee chair and at least two additional members of the English Department's graduate faculty.

Changes: To change an advisor or advisory committee, a student must complete a Committee Change Request form, to be signed by all committee members and the Department Head, and submitted to the English Graduate Program and the Graduate College.
Plan of Study

A plan of study is a listing of course work the student intends to take for completion of the degree and an estimated time schedule. The student must develop the plan with his/her advisor and advisory committee. The Graduate College requires MA students to file an original plan of study with the Graduate College before completing the second semester of graduate study. A hold is automatically placed on the registration of any student attempting to enroll beyond the second semester who does not have a plan of study approved by the Graduate College

Planning Meeting: Prior to completing the second semester of graduate study, students must schedule a meeting with their advisory committee. During that meeting, the student and advisory committee will discuss the student’s preparation, professional goals, and plans for graduate study. The student and committee should agree upon:

- A plan of study
- Fulfillment of the language requirement
- Tentative plans for the MA Qualifying Examination (if required)
- Tentative plans for the thesis

Submitting the Plan of Study: Following the plan of study meeting, the student will complete and submit the plan of study online and the advisory committee and Graduate Director will sign electronically.

Changes: Changes to the plan of study can be made with the approval of the advisory committee. A revised plan should be submitted to the Graduate College at the beginning of the intended semester of graduation. Students make revisions online.

Ten-Year Rule: A final plan of study may not include any course more than ten years old at the time of actual graduation.

Checklist for a Plan of Study

- Minimum of 30 hours (including six hours of thesis) beyond baccalaureate degree
- Minimum of 16 hours in English
- At least 21 hours of course work at the 5000 or 6000 level at OSU
- All courses, including 4000-level, must be taken for graduate credit
- No more than 9 hours of course work taken as special student or transferred from another institution
- No course work may be included if it was previously used to complete requirements for another degree (with the exception of the TESL Certificate).
- The plan of study must be signed electronically by the advisor, committee members, and the Graduate Director

MA Degree Plan

Students take 30 semester hours (including six credit hours of thesis) and prepare either a traditional thesis embodying original research, or, for literature students only, a portfolio reflecting scholarly development. The Graduate College describes both the traditional thesis and the portfolio as a “thesis.” Literature students do not take Qualifying Exams.
Course Requirements

Required Courses: In order to provide the flexibility necessary for an individual MA student's emphasis in period or genre studies, Screen Studies, Linguistics/TESOL (Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages), or Composition/Rhetoric, the Department requires only one course of all general MA students, ENGL 5013: Introduction to Graduate Studies (for Screen Studies students, ENGL 5363: Critical Approaches to Screen Studies). The following requirements govern MA course work.

Introduction to Graduate Studies: Either ENGL 5013: Introduction to Graduate Studies or, for Screen Studies students, ENGL 5363: Critical Approaches to Screen Studies, is required of all students during their first year in the master's program. Students who believe that they have already taken a course equivalent to ENGL 5013 or ENGL 5363 may petition the Graduate Director to have this requirement waived. The student's petition should include a letter asking for the waiver and containing reasons for the request, a copy of the syllabus from the previous course, and any papers or assignments done for that course. The Graduate Director will then pass the request to those professors teaching ENGL 5013 or ENGL 5363 for an evaluation and request a written recommendation. Upon receiving the recommendation, the Graduate Director will affirm or deny the petition and notify the student and the student's advisor by email. Each case will be judged on its own merits, regardless of whether the same course number at the same institution has been recommended as an equivalent course before.

Methods Course for Teaching Assistants: Teaching assistants must take an appropriate pedagogy course or courses in their first semester of teaching at Oklahoma State University. These hours may be counted as part of the total hours of course work.

Linguistics and Applied Linguistics/TESOL Curricula: In addition to other requirements, students focusing on Linguistics must take nine hours as a core on which to build further study. These courses include: ENGL 5143 (Descriptive Linguistics), ENGL 5133 (Phonetics and Phonology), and ENGL 5153 (Syntax). Students focusing on Applied Linguistics/TESOL must take: ENGL 5143 (Descriptive Linguistics) and additional courses as required by their advisory committee.

Electives: Students choose the remaining hours of course work in consultation with their advisory committees. Course selection should take into account the student's thesis subject, professional goals, and preparation for the MA Qualifying Examination (if required).

Required Hours at 5000/6000 Level: All MA students must complete at least 21 hours of course work at the 5000/6000 level; this 21 hours of course work may include six hours of credit for work on the thesis.

4000-Level Courses: Only those 4000-level courses marked by an asterisk in the OSU University Catalog are available for graduate credit and carry a special section number for graduate enrollment. All graduate course work should include a research paper or other appropriate project. In the instance of a 4000-level course that may not require such a paper or project, the student should, with the consent of the instructor involved, arrange for such a paper or project to supplement the assigned work. Because 4000-level literature courses are designed primarily for undergraduates, the Literature Faculty strongly suggests that all graduate courses for students in the literature specialization be at the 5000/6000 level.

Transfer Hours: Students may transfer up to nine graduate hours from another university granting a master's degree in English. A student's advisory committee shall determine the number of hours of transfer credit to be awarded. If a student uses the hours for a degree at the previous institution, the hours are not applicable to the MA degree at OSU.
Independent Study: Independent Study courses may be occasionally arranged with an instructor when no regular graduate course on the desired topic is available during the student's expected tenure. Each of the two course numbers (ENGL 5210 and 6210) may be used for up to six credit hours per semester, and no more than nine hours total per course number. All students requesting an Independent Study course must hold a meeting with their advisory committee and receive approval by the members of the committee. Special forms must be used by those who wish to enroll in such courses. Available on the forms page of the English Graduate website, this form should be submitted no later than the end of the first week of graduate enrollment period prior to the semester in which the Independent Study course is taken. A student who has completed the 17th graduate credit hour in a degree program but who does not have an approved plan of study on file in the Graduate College may not arrange an Independent Study course.

The Graduate Studies Committee will evaluate applications for Independent Study in accordance with the following criteria and procedure:

1. Has the student's advisory committee approved the course?
2. Has the student taken regularly offered courses related to the subject?
3. Is the Independent Study unlikely to have a negative impact on enrollment in concurrent or immediately subsequent course offerings?
4. Does the Independent Study fill a gap in the student's curriculum? Or is the specific course content unlikely to be offered during the student's expected tenure?
5. Are the text materials clearly listed?
6. Is the work appropriate for the number of credit hours requested?
7. Is the list of assignments and percentages awarded to each clearly explained?
8. Is the schedule of conferences sufficiently specific?

If all eight questions may be answered affirmatively, the Graduate Director will send a written notice by email to the proposed instructor, who will then inform the student.

If one or more questions cannot be answered affirmatively, the Graduate Director will contact the proposed instructor in an effort to clarify and/or resolve the problem(s). If no resolution can be reached, the Graduate Director will inform the proposed instructor of the denial and the reason(s) for the denial in writing. The proposed instructor will then inform the student.

End-of-Semester Evaluations: All graduate students will be evaluated in writing at the end of each semester by the professors with whom they have taken courses. These evaluations are kept on file in the English Graduate Office and are available for students to read.

Grade of “Incomplete”: The following regulations apply to students who receive what at OSU is termed the "composite incomplete" grade ("IB," "IC," "ID," or "IF") for any of their course work within the English Department:

- Students must complete course work within one calendar year, after which time the preliminary grade (expressed by the second letter of the composite) becomes permanent in accordance with University policy. Individual faculty members, however, may establish a shorter time limit for completing course work. Faculty will identify time limits in the "remarks" dropdown of the electronic grade sheet.

- Teaching assistants or associates having more than three incomplete grades on their records will not be recommended for reappointment.

- Teaching assistants or associates having any incomplete grades on their records will not be recommended for summer employment.

Students should familiarize themselves with Section 6.2 of the University Academic Regulations found in the University Catalog for a full explanation of University policy governing incomplete grades.
Language Requirement

Methods of Demonstrating Proficiency: In order to fulfill the language requirement for the MA in English, students must demonstrate reading knowledge of one language other than English by passing a translation test, or taking course work, or submitting the departmental form on which the student's advisory committee affirms that the language is the student's primary language. Students who elect a translation test must choose from among the following languages: French, German, Greek, Italian, Latin, Old English, Russian, and Spanish. The language requirement must be fulfilled prior to taking the MA Qualifying Examination or defending the MA Thesis.

Petition for Alternative Method of Demonstrating Proficiency: Students may petition the Graduate Studies Committee for approval to fulfill the language requirement with demonstrable proficiency in a language other than English that they have gained through study and/or residence in an area where the language is spoken. This petition is completed by means of a departmental form and must have the support of the student's advisory committee.

Reading Knowledge may be demonstrated in any of the following ways:

- Reading knowledge can be demonstrated by passing a translation test in one of the languages listed above. The test shall consist of a total of three 250-300-word passages in the language, two from scholarly articles and one from a primary text. For Latin, Greek, or Old English, the test will consist of three primary texts. With access to a dictionary, students must translate any two of the passages. The test for reading knowledge must be completed within three hours.

- Reading knowledge can be demonstrated by taking one three-credit-hour upper-division undergraduate course in which the instruction and readings are primarily in the language or by taking one three-credit-hour graduate language reading course. Students must receive a grade of “B” or better in the specified course to fulfill the requirement. See the graduate director for information regarding such courses.

Coursework may be completed after enrolling in the OSU English Department Graduate Program, or it may have been completed no more than five years prior to matriculation

- A student who holds a Master's degree from another institution may fulfill the reading knowledge requirement by providing written proof that he or she has satisfactorily completed a language requirement for the Master's degree at the awarding institution. This documentation should be in the form of either (a) a specific posting of the language requirement having been met on the student's transcript or, (b) a letter from an appropriate official at the institution that awarded the Master's.

Scheduling the Translation Test: Translation tests are arranged by the English Graduate Office. They are offered three times a year, at the beginning of the fall, spring, and summer semesters. Fall and spring tests typically are held the third Wednesday of the semester. Summer tests are held the Wednesday after the last day of the spring semester. Notices of Intent to take the test are due no later than two weeks prior to the test (the end of the first week of classes). The fee for this exam is $40 and must be paid by check or money order (payable to the English Department) prior to the test date. Sample tests are available in electronic format from the English Graduate Office.

MA Qualifying Examination
MA students (except those specializing in literature) take one five-hour qualifying examination that is administered on a single day. It is given each September and February, on the fifth Saturday of the semester. Students must submit a signed Notice of Intent to take the examination by the end of the second week of classes. The Notice of Intent will indicate the areas of study over which the student wishes to be examined. Students normally elect at least two but no more than three areas, and they must take the exams on the Stillwater campus. No exams are offered during the summer.

Exam Areas: The subject areas for the MA Qualifying Examination are:

- Screen History
- Screen Theory
- Composition and Rhetoric
- Professional Writing
- Digital Studies
- General Linguistics
- Language Variation and Change
- Applied Linguistics/TESOL

Prerequisites: In order to take the MA Qualifying Examination, students must:

- have fulfilled the language requirement
- have a grade point average of at least 3.0 on all graduate work taken beyond the baccalaureate degree. All courses carrying graduate credit, including transfer hours on the approved plan of study, will be calculated in this grade point average
- have an approved plan of study on file with the Graduate College
- submit a Notice of Intent To Take Qualifying Examinations form to the English Graduate Office before the end of the second week of classes

Exam Format: The MA Qualifying Examination will consist of three essay question choices in each of the areas that have been selected on the Notice of Intent form. Students must respond to a total of three questions.

Preparation: The English Graduate Website has reading lists for all areas here:
http://english.okstate.edu/programs/graduate-program/ma-exams-and-reading-lists
The English Graduate Office has copies of past exams in electronic format available upon request. Students should consult with their advisor and advisory committee when preparing for the MA Qualifying Examination.

Evaluation: Each question will be evaluated by three readers from the specific subject area covered by that section of the exam. Student anonymity will be maintained. If a student answers two questions in a single area, the readers in that area will evaluate each question separately. All readers evaluate exam questions individually before meeting as a committee to discuss student performances and provide a rating of "Pass with Distinction," "Pass," "Pass/Terminal MA," or "Fail" for each question. To be eligible for the MA in English, students must pass all three questions; these questions must be in at least two areas.

Notification of Results: The Graduate Director will email notification of exam results to students and their advisors no later than two weeks after the exams were taken.

Retakes: Students may take the MA Qualifying Examination only twice. Students who fail one or more questions the first time must retake only the number of questions failed. They must pass three questions in total, and the retaken questions combined with those questions originally passed must draw from at least two areas. Students are also allowed to retake the exam or parts of the exam in the next major semester in order to improve an original rating of "Pass/Terminal MA." Students retaking part of the exam will have two hours to answer one question, three hours to answer two questions, and four hours to answer three questions.

Appeals: Normally, a second failure on any section of the MA Qualifying Examination will result in termination of the student’s work toward the degree. However, when course work has been of exceptionally high quality, a student may, after a second failure, petition the Graduate Studies Committee for permission to take the exam a third and final time. In order to petition, the student must have a grade point average of 3.50 or higher in graduate courses taken at OSU. In addition, the student’s petition must be supported by favorable end-of-semester evaluations from at least three professors.

Thesis

The candidate for the MA degree normally prepares a study embodying original research for the six hours of thesis credit. It is possible for the student to convert a course paper of high quality into a thesis with additional research.

Prerequisites: In order to defend a thesis, whether traditional or portfolio, students must:

- have fulfilled the language requirement
- have a grade point average of at least 3.0 on all graduate work taken beyond the baccalaureate degree. All courses carrying graduate credit, including transfer hours on the approved plan of study, will be calculated in this grade point average
- have an approved plan of study on file with the Graduate College
- submit a completed Intent to Defend form before the end of the first two weeks of the semester in which they intend to defend
- meet all Graduate College deadlines and requirements

Literature students may choose either the traditional thesis format or the Literature Portfolio format

1. Traditional Thesis Format

   This consists of 24 hours of coursework, plus six hours of ENGL 5000: Thesis, leading to a traditional thesis and defense. The thesis is expected to be approximately 50-60 pages long.

2. Literature Portfolio Format

   This consists of 24 hours of coursework, plus six hours of ENGL 5000: Thesis, leading to an academic portfolio and defense.

   Instead of the thesis, the student will compile a portfolio to be submitted to his or her advisory committee. The portfolio will be treated as a traditional thesis for purposes of the defense.

   The portfolio will consist of the following materials:

   - Seminar papers, or the equivalent, from at least six courses taken as part of the MA program.
   - One of the above seminar papers substantially revised for submission to a peer-reviewed scholarly journal. The revision of this paper should be done under the supervision of the advisor. The paper should demonstrate full knowledge of the secondary work done in the chosen field, as well as the theoretical assumptions governing the field. The revised paper will be submitted as a thesis to the Graduate College and be subject to all Graduate College deadlines and requirements.
   - A statement of approximately 1000 words which should discuss the questions, research strategies, and critical or theoretical thinking that have informed the student’s work throughout his/her graduate career, as evidenced by the work presented in the portfolio. In discussing the revised essay, the student should explain its strengths and identify a target journal, providing a full justification for the choice and explaining what specific revisions have been done toward publication.

Thesis Committee: Unless a student requests a change, the advisory committee serves as the thesis committee. If it is necessary to change the committee, a new committee form must be completed and submitted to the English Graduate Office and the Graduate College.

Prospectus: MA candidates writing a traditional thesis should submit a prospectus (approximately 1000 words) no later than the first semester they are enrolled in thesis hours. The prospectus must be approved by the candidate’s committee. Committee members must be notified in writing if an approved prospectus differs significantly from the submitted thesis (if, for example, the topic of the thesis changes or the authors or texts to be treated are altered or the number or character of the chapters changes). Students must provide a copy of the approved prospectus to the Graduate Director.

Reading Procedure: At the time that the prospectus is approved, the candidate and the committee members should agree upon a reading procedure for the individual chapters or papers. Matters to be discussed in reaching this agreement might include which chapters or papers each member of the committee needs to see as they are completed by the candidate; whether individual committee members wish to see the thesis or portfolio sections serially or all at once; and how much time committee members will need to finish reading a section or the entire thesis. Under no circumstances should a completed thesis be submitted to any committee member for reading fewer than two weeks before the defense.

Deadlines: Students submitting theses must adhere to deadlines established by the Graduate College and by the English Department.

Style: The student must write the thesis according to the guidelines in the current Graduate College Style Manual, available from the Graduate College or at: http://gradcollege.okstate.edu/student/thesis/default.html

Defense Copy (Final Draft): The defense copy of the thesis should contain all of the chapters in a completed form with full documentation.

Final Copy: If, as a result of the defense, revisions to the thesis are required, committee members will not sign the thesis until they are satisfied with the revisions.

Final Examination: Thesis Defense

A thesis defense will consist of a public oral examination by the thesis committee. It will be no fewer than 45 minutes, but it may be longer. The candidate submitting a research thesis will answer challenges to the thesis argument as well as questions on the scholarly, historical, and/or cultural backgrounds of the thesis subject. The candidate submitting a portfolio will answer challenges to the arguments of the six papers and to the statement of scholarly development, with particular focus on the revised paper. The thesis defense occurs after the student has submitted a complete draft of the thesis or portfolio to all committee members.

Intent to Defend Form: Candidates will file a nonbinding Intent to Defend form with the Graduate Director before the end of the first two weeks of the semester in which they expect to defend the thesis. Each member of the committee will sign this form before it is filed with the Graduate Director. The date, time, and room must be arranged by the student. If a student does not defend in the semester when the Intent to Defend form is filed, he or she should resubmit the form when he or she is prepared to defend.

Defense: Under no circumstances should a completed thesis be submitted to any committee member for reading fewer than two weeks before the defense. The English Graduate Office must be notified no less than two weeks before the oral defense of the day, time, and location of the defense, and the title of the thesis. The English Graduate Office must be informed of any changes in the scheduled defense date, time, and location.

No thesis defense will be held after the beginning of the summer session.

Student Tenure

Students must complete all requirements for the MA degree within seven years from their first enrollment in courses for the MA program.

Length of Financial Support for Teaching Assistants

A teaching assistant who has not been placed on strict academic probation and who is making satisfactory progress toward the degree is eligible for financial support for a maximum of three years. A student who obtains an MA in English at OSU and then enters the PhD program is eligible for an additional five years of support.

If exceptional circumstances warrant, a student in the final year of financial support may petition the Head of the English Department for an additional year's support. Such exceptional cases will be judged on an individual basis and in light of Departmental policies and staffing needs.

Ineligibility for the MA Degree

The Graduate Director may upon proper cause declare a student ineligible for a degree from the English Department at Oklahoma State University. Upon determining that such cause exists, the Graduate Director will immediately notify the student's advisor, who will discuss the matter with the student and respond to the Graduate Director within fifteen working days. Should the Graduate Director still believe that proper cause exists, he or she will write a letter to the student indicating the reasons for the decision. The student may then appeal to the Graduate Studies Committee within ten working days for a hearing.

The Graduate Studies Committee will review the appeal and report its findings to the Graduate Director, who will notify the student. The student may then appeal that decision to the full Graduate Faculty of the English Department. The decision of that group shall end the Departmental appeal process.

Appeals and Petitions

All appeals involving grades or charges of academic dishonesty or misconduct must be directed to the OSU Academic Appeals Board. Contact the Provost's office (101 Whitehurst) for information and forms. Petitions involving teaching assistantships must be directed to the Department Head.

All other petitions or appeals must be directed in writing to the Graduate Director, who will then forward the petition to the appropriate body, usually the Graduate Studies Committee (for special requests as described within the English Graduate Guidelines) or the English Graduate Faculty (for exceptions to English Department policy). The Graduate Director will notify students by mail of the decision reached by the Graduate Studies Committee or the Graduate Faculty, with a copy to the student's advisor. For exceptions to university policy, the Graduate Director will forward the petition to the Graduate Council.

Students are urged to discuss matters with their advisors and with the Graduate Director before making a formal petition or appeal.

If the Graduate Director does not act upon a student's written request within a reasonable amount of time, a student and/or advisor may appeal directly to the Department Head. If a student has exhausted all appeals procedures within the Department and is still not able to resolve the problem, he or she may appeal to the Graduate College.
