

Ravi Sheorey Travel Award Application

The Ravi Sheorey Travel Award provides support for conference-related expenses for graduate students who are presenting a paper at a TESOL-related conference. This includes the TESOL annual convention, the OKTESOL annual convention, or overseas TESL conferences. Awards are granted on a rolling basis, so students should apply as soon as they have a paper accepted for presentation at an applicable conference.

Name: _____ CWID: _____

Graduate Program: _____

Name of Conference: _____

Inclusive dates of the conference: _____

Location of the conference: _____

Title of paper to be presented: _____

Total Budget (mileage, airfare, hotel, per diem, other expenses): _____

Along with this application page, you must include the following:

- 1) confirmation of acceptance of paper for presentation at the conference (email from session chair or conference organizer, or conference program listing your paper)
- 2) abstract of paper to be presented
- 3) your current CV
- 4) itemized budget (mileage, airfare, hotel, per diem, other expenses)

Submit your application materials to JuDean Howerton, who will then route for the following signatures.

Signature of the TESL/Linguistics Program Director, indicating approval of the proposal

Signature of the Department Head, indicating approval